

MADE DEFENDANT IN TWO LAW SUITS

Earl H. Payne and Co-Defendants
Sued by Gertrude Williams on Note for $8,500

ALLEGES HE IS INSOLVENT

T. R. Reed Files Complaint To Have Lien Established, Making Similar Allegations

Two law suits have been filed in the circuit court, one complaint being for $8,500 damages, filed by Gertrude Williams of Glenwood, and against Earl H. Payne, with Ralph Payne and the People National bank as co-defendants, and the other a complaint to enforce a lien, filed by Theodore Richardson Reed against Earl H. Payne and Charles A. Manzy.

The plaintiff, Gertrude Williams, sets out in the early portion of her complaint that the bank, The Peoples National bank, for twenty years has been a duly organized national bank of discount and deposit; that for more than ten years the defendant, Earl H. Payne, was its president, and while holding such office, he was actively engaged in the conduct and direction of the business affairs, having his office therein and his name upon his desk where he transacted business for the bank, designating him as such president in full view of the patrons and customers; that during the same period the defendant, Ralph Payne was the duly elected and acting cashier, with all powers and duties provided by law for such office.

The complaint alleges that during said period the plaintiff was a customer of the bank, and that the bank had held out to this plaintiff and to the public generally that the defendant, Earl H. Payne, as its president, was a man of highest honor, integrity, standing and of unusual financial ability and entitled to the trust and confidence of this plaintiff.

The complaint continues to set out that because of the trust, she had business transactions, large and small with the banking officials. She said to further her trust in the banking officials, that they caused at frequent times, reports and circulars to be distributed and newspaper advertisements and other printed matter to be distributed, in which it was represented that the bank and all of its officials were especially efficient and trustworthy in the banking business.

The suit sets out that about the year 1916, while the defendant Earl H. Payne was acting as president, that he began a systematic and fraudulent borrowing of money from the customers and patrons of the defendant bank and trust company, and that he continued said practice of fraudulent borrowing with full knowledge and consent of his co-defendants until on or about March 1, 1923, when he was deposed as an officer in the business.

The plaintiff also charges that to further the trust of said patrons, that in addition to the printed matter distributed, and by oral statements, that the defendant, Earl H. Payne, represented that the defendant bank was and would be liable for all that he did, and that he was worth approximately $175,000 to

TEN KILLED IN RIOTING

Killings Occur When Crowd Attacks Police In Durango City, Mex.

Durango City, Mexico, June 1.—Soldiers patrolled the streets following rioting yesterday resulting in ten deaths and seventeen wounded.

Three bodies are among the dead. The killings occurred when a crowd of 3,000 attacked mounted police in front of the governor's palace.

They were demonstrating through the streets in protest against the new law which limits the number of ministers of any sect to not more than twenty-five.

The crowd began demonstrating at noon yesterday, and after three hours' listening to speeches, began throwing stones at the palace. Police fired high at first and then the battle began.

NOT WORRIED OVER LAW SUIT

Imperial Wizard Of Ku Klux Klan
Comments On Receivership Action

(By United Press)
Washington, June 1.—"The receivership suit filed against the Ku Klux Klan doesn't amount to a row of beans," William H. Evans, imperial wizard, said here today. Evans said he had never heard of David M. Rittenhouse of Philadelphia, in whose name the suit was brought yesterday in Atlanta, and to whom a temporary restraining order against use of Klan funds was granted.

"This suit is just a yell from the losers," Evans said. "We have things like this all the time. They cannot prevent our use of Klan funds. We are not worried about it. Our affairs will go on as usual."

MINIMIZES RUMORS OF STORM BREWING

Governor McCray Says There Is Nothing Sensational About Organization Trouble

A FIGHT IN LAKE COUNTY

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—Governor McCray today minimized rumors that a storm was brewing between the governor's office and certain party workers over appointments which were said to have been made by the governor without consulting members of the state committee.

"There is nothing at all sensational about the situation," he said. This statement followed a meeting of Clyde A. Walb, state chairman, and other leaders with the governor at the latter's home last night at which alleged grievances of party workers were aired.

The principal difficulty, it was stated, was the objection of George M. Poland, Lake county chairman, to the appointment of Oscar L. Lagren, republican floor leader in the house, to succeed Dwight M. Kinder, as prosecutor of Lake county.

Kinder was one of the men sentenced to federal penitentiary in the Gary booze conspiracy case.

POLICY OF SPEEDWAY IS TO BE CHANGED

Carl G. Fisher Announced Races
Will Be Experiments Rather Than Speed Demonstration

TO MEET AUTOMOBILE

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—Carl G. Fisher, president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway today announced that the 500-mile races of the future would be more in the nature of scientific experiments than of sheer speed demonstrations.

For this purpose, he intends calling a meeting of all important manufacturers to discuss limitations for the next race.

A gasoline consumption limitation was proposed by Fisher. As an example, he said it might be that they would limit the amount used by one car in a race to 50 gallons. Those that ran out of gas would lose the race regardless of the speed they made.

Following the record-breaking crowd which attended the race this year, Fisher said extensive improvements would be made to the grounds. A grandstand one-half mile long is contemplated, he said.

COURT DENIES HEARING

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—The supreme court of Indiana today denied the petition of U. S. Lesh, state's attorney general, for a rehearing of the Crab's case, in which the supreme court held that mere possession of liquor is not prima facie evidence of violation of the state prohibition law.

The court also overruled petition for oral argument on the point. Judge Enbark dissented from the ruling denying the rehearing.

THE SWIMMING SEASON'S IN AGAIN

TO SIGN OR VETO ACT BY SUNDAY

Gov. Smith of New York Takes Case of Prohibition Under Advisement
After Hearing

IS BOTH THE JUDGE AND JURY

Thirty-Day Period in Which he is Permitted to Act on Repeal Bill
Expires Sunday

By P. B. SCOTT
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
Albany, N. Y., June 1.—Governor Al Smith, as judge and jury, took the case of prohibition under advisement today.

Before Sunday midnight, he will sign or veto the repealer of the state enforcement act passed by the legislature, sign and make himself leader of the wet faction in the national Democratic party or veto and abandon the cause of Tammany Hall.

The evidence in the case is all in, having been presented in the final arguments of wet and dry leaders during a five hour hearing in the assembly chamber Thursday. The thirty day period in which he is permitted to act on the repealing bill, expires Sunday midnight. In view of doubt over whether it is ethical or legal to act on Sunday, the governor is expected to make known his decision by midnight tomorrow.

There is no definite information as to what action the governor will take. Presence of some of the Tammany leaders in Albany gave hopes to the wets that their pressure might be exerted on the governor to sign the repealer. Dry followers, however, were convinced that their arguments had swayed the executive to the dry viewpoint.

The governor himself has refused to express even to his closest friends any indication of his action. A speech he made a week ago in Coney Island in which he said he "would enforce the law", no matter whether some of his friends liked it or not, is the only vague comment he made.

KLAN INITIATES 102 CANDIDATES

Meeting Held At Old Fair Grounds
Thursday Night Attended By
Crowd Estimated At 1,500

SECOND ONE HELD LATELY

A Ku Klux Klan meeting said to be the largest of its kind in recent weeks in Rush county was held at the old fair grounds east of Rushville. The crowd was estimated at 1,500. A class of 102 candidates was initiated at the meeting, it is reported.

Machines began to arrive at the grounds early in the evening and the meeting opened about 8 o'clock. The speaker's name was not announced. The principles of the Ku Klux Klan were outlined at length by the speaker and he made a strong plea for a stronger Americanism. He was applauded frequently during the address.

Practically every part of the county was represented at the meeting. Klansmen attired in the full regalia of the organization were stationed at intervals along the fences enclosing the grounds and a group of the robed figures was on guard at the main entrance to the grounds.

A cross, approximately 15 feet high was burned on a hill and attracted much attention. The meeting was held in the space formerly used as a show ring by the fair association.

This was the second "open air" meeting to be held in this section of the county within the past week. A class of approximately 85 candidates was initiated at a similar gathering of Klansmen a few miles north of the city a few nights ago.

TAKES POISON BY ACCIDENT, DIES

John W. Vannatta, Age 70 Years,
Dies This Morning From Effects
Of Drinking Strychnine

DENIES SUICIDAL INTENT

Before Death Deceased Asserts He Used Glass Which Contained
Poison To Take Drink

John W. Vannatta, age 70 years, a well known character of this city succumbed, this morning at 5:20 o'clock at his rooms 1231 East First street, following convulsions growing out of the taking of poison last night, which was said to have been accidentally taken.

The deceased, who occupied rooms over the Smiley barber shop on the south side of the public square, made a statement late last night, in which he said that he had filled a glass with water, and that he had previously used poison for rats in the glass.

Persons passing on the streets, heard his moans about nine o'clock last night, and it was necessary to break into his rooms. Dr. M. F. Sexton was called and rendered first aid, but owing to the fact that the poison had been in his system for an hour, it was impossible to prevent it from becoming fatal.

The physician was at first baffled as to the kind of poison used, and it was decided today that the preparation was strychnine, although arsenic and other poisons are generally used to poison rats. Strychnine is a very bitter medicine, and could not have been swallowed without being noticeable, the physician stated.

The deceased became unconscious during the night, but prior to that he made several statements and denied that he had made an attempt upon his life, and asserted that he had used the wrong container.

A brother and sister survive. They are Jesse Vannatta of Indianapolis and Mrs. Vina York of this city and several nieces and nephews.

CHARLES BANKS IS DROWNED

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Loses Life
In River East Of Orange

Charles Banks, age 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Banks, living near Nullton, south of Connersville was drowned early last evening about five miles south of Connersville, and a short distance east of Orange in White River. The young man and four or five other boys, younger than himself, were swimming in a deep hole, and it is believed that he suffered with cramps, and went to the bottom. He came to the surface five times, according to the witnesses, but they were not strong enough to rescue him. The water was said to be 14 feet deep.

His body was recovered from the river later by grown people who came in response to calls for help, and the Fayette county coroner was summoned.

er Today

DAMAGE SUIT IS DISMISSED

Two divorces were granted this morning in the circuit court, upon payment of the costs, and a few other court matters were taken up.

In the complaint of Ruth Smith against Charles J. Smith, the court heard the evidence, and granted the plaintiff a divorce, and restored her former name of Ruth Harris, upon payment of the costs. The evidence also was heard in the case of Fannie K. Wheeler against Grover C. Wheeler, and the divorce granted upon payment of the costs, and her former name of Fannie Higley was restored.

The suit of Elizabeth Adams Miller against Building Association No. 10 of Rushville for damages amounting to $1,800 was dismissed by the plaintiff today. In this case, the plaintiff had alleged failure on the part of the banking firm with registering her deposits.

William Dugan through his attorneys have filed a motion in court for a new trial in the case in which he was plaintiff and Alva G. Newbold defendant. A jury a few weeks ago found for the defense, in the suit where the plaintiff sought damages following a car accident south of Rushville.

New York, June 1.—Investigation into the crash of Jones and Baker, the largest stock brokers of the curb market here and one of the largest firms ever to go into voluntary bankruptcy was launched here today, while authorities in Chicago were determining whether the Illinois "blue sky" law had been violated by the firm.

"Long" accounts of customers were reported to amount to $10,000,000 and bank loans totaling about $2,500,000.

Steps were taken by authorities to insure that there would be no obstacles to surmount as in previous inquiries when other brokerage firms failed.

In Wearing Quality OLDSMOBILE Wins by Comparison

Where does an automobile wear out? Where one part rubs on another, of course. Take the shackle bolts for instance.

The shackle bolts and the shackle link illustrated above, connect the frame of the automobile with the springs. You strike a bump in the road, the springs are flexed, and there's wear on the shackle bolts. Oldsmobile shackle bolts being larger than average give extra years of service.

In every other vital part the Oldsmobile chassis is built oversize to resist wear. There you have the meaning of the slogan "Oldsmobile Wins by Comparison".

Is an Advertising Investment Good Collateral?

Your money deposited in banks is loaned by bankers upon the security of merchandise whose value has been created and is maintained by advertising.

Is the created more substantial than its creator—the product than the tool?

More and more, bankers are recognizing the essential verity of this principle—that money can be loaned as safely upon a sound advertising investment as upon other collateral which advertising has developed and maintained.

Some of the books have been paid for but a few extras have been ordered so that any Scout who does not now possess a book may get one without any further delay. There books may be had any time Saturday at 836 North Jackson.

Scout Headquarters has written letters commending the work of John Neutzelher and Walter Keaton in the recent Tenderfoot examinations. Both of these boys received an average grade of 94% which is considered a very high standing.

The camp committee of the Turkey Run Camp for Boys has announced that boys may be enrolled for camp any time up to within three days of the beginning of the camp by paying an additional two dollars to the regular fee of twelve dollars. This two dollars in no way effects the boys who have already enrolled and paid their first fee. It is only to be paid by those boys who enroll for the camp at a late date.

DEPUTY SURVEYOR ARRESTED

Knox, Ind., June 1.—B. H. Bortner, deputy county surveyor, was arrested by Sheriff German, in the surveyors office at the court house here after the sheriff armed with a search warrant, had found a quantity of liquor bearing the earmarks of moonshine whiskey. A charge of public intoxication was placed against Bortner with the probability that other charges will be brought against him.

GRAVEL ROADS IN GOOD CONDITION

Recent Rains Laid Dust And In Many Localities Gravel And Stone Roads Are Like Velvet

PROBLEM NOW IS DETOURS

There Are Approximately 20 Detour At This Time On State Roads Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—Three thousand miles of gravel and stone roads in the Indiana state highway system are in the best condition since the commission was organized in 1919, John D. Williams, department director, said today.

Recent rains laid the dust and in many localities this type roads are like velvet, surpassing for pleasure and comfort, travel over hard surface highways. Most of this mileage came through the winter in excellent shape due to constant maintenance and a system of road drainage installed in 1921.

"Our greatest problem at this time in state road work is maintaining adequate detours necessary where state roads are under construction," Mr. Williams said.

There are approximately 20 detours at this time on State Roads Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6. Detours on No. 1 (Range Line Road) exist in Marion, Hamilton, Tipton, Marshall and St. Joseph counties, all north of Indianapolis; on Road No. 2 (Lincoln Highway) just east and west of Ft. Wayne; on Road No. 3 (National Road) at Stilesville and near Reesville; on Road No. 4 in Orange, Dubois and Spencer counties, and on Road No. 6 just west of Indianapolis at Blackville. The National road detour near Stilesville will be removed in about two months as the road will be completed at that section, highway officials said.

Hundreds of men with motor equipment have been working on all weak spots in the non-rigid type roads for the past few weeks getting them in nearly perfect condition for the motor traffic that will come to Indianapolis for the annual Memorial Day automobile derby.

In order that the thousands of persons who will drive to Indianapolis from all parts of Indiana and from the principal cities of many other states have proper information on detours, favored routes from various points, condition of state roads et cetera, the highway department will issue a traffic bulletin to help motorists in their overland journey to the Hoosier capital.

PUT FINISHING TOUCHES ON CITY

Classical Washington Is An Oriental Paradise For Shrine Week Beginning Sunday

ADVANCE GUARD IS IN CITY

In Contrast With Oriental Atmosphere The Crowds Present A Quicker Cosmopolitan Appearance

By FRASER EDWARDS
(Written for United Press)
Washington, June 1.—Classical Washington had all but vanquished today as the finishing touches were being made on the city for Shrine Week which begins on Sunday.

In its place is an Oriental paradise. Graceful Corinthian columns have been cleverly converted into Archaic minarets and mosques have sprung full-panoplied over night. Where once stood the nation's hero now stands an Egyptian pyramid or a smiling sphinx.

Before the White House is the Garden of Allah. In this bizarre "court or honor" the "first shriner" of the land—Warren G. Harding—will review the parading Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Historic Pennsylvania Avenue, from the Monument of Peace at the foot of Capitol Hill to the Treasury department, has been strung with a myriad of electric lights. The incandescent jewels of these arches, hanging like split necklaces, make the old parade street as brilliant by night as by day.

Above the Capitol dome itself, gleaming like a mighty mosque in the flood of pale light thrown by a battery of powerful search-lights. A slender finger of light touches the Washington monument. It reaches up in to the night like some gigantic minaret.

Adding to the Oriental touch, the streets are already filled with visiting Nobles in red fez and gaudy Zouave uniforms. Many of their wives and daughters are wearing unique and colorful Shrine costumes.

In striking contrast with the Oriental atmosphere the crowds hurrying along from bazaar to bazaar present a queer cosmopolitan appearance.

Mixing with conventionally clad Washingtonians and the Oriental garbed visitors are Indians in war-bonnets and trailing blankets, cowboys in hairy chaparejos and cowgirls in buckskin skirts.

Camels belonging to the caravans of visiting temples shamble along, flivvers, street cars and prancing horses decked with bright colored trappings.

Masquerading Washington is all set for a week of Oriental frolic.

The Will of The People

People who make a study of world conditions are convinced that another war is coming, on a greater scale than ever before, leaving utter devastation in its wake.

Other people, some of whom do not stop to think, do not believe that there will be any more wars. They didn't think we would have the last one—but we did, and we will be paying for it yet many years hence.

It has been demonstrated that a mammoth bombing plane can sink the greatest battleship afloat within a few minutes by simply dropping enormous bombs in THE WATER near the ship.

A bomb that can sink a battleship can also blow up cities, or destroy the inhabitants with gas.

France has 5,000 airplanes ready for war when it comes, and Japan is making rapid strides toward the collection of a powerful aerial fleet. In this country, according to the published reports, we have a hundred million dollars worth of airplanes that are being destroyed by rust and neglect through disuse. There is no one to plan them.

Congress has put the airship out of use in the United States, or practically so, through failing to provide the man power and the funds necessary to its support.

But congress has done only what a majority of the people wanted it to do—nothing.

How would you like to have an enemy bomb drop in your own front yard? But of course you wouldn't worry over it—after it hit.

Too Many Laws

One of the strangest political tendencies of our time is the suddenly increased faith of legislators in the power of laws to enforce themselves once they are reduced to writing. No belief has been so continuously and thoroughly discredited, yet none is so alarmingly alive. Every political philosopher from Montaigne's day to this hour has recognized that the best government is that conducted with the least law and machinery.

A multitude of evils attend the naive faith of legislatures in the enforcement capacity of law as represented by words on a piece of paper. One is an inevitable weakening of respect for a government born of a disregard for its more outlandish aspects. Another is the uninterrupted encroachment of government on the governed. A third and most distressing evil is the appalling expense attending the creation of multitudinous new bureaus and offices provided for.

The time may come when a candidate pledging himself to nothing but the repeal of two laws for every one created will be generally supported.

First Aid From Us

A bulletin from the State Department bearing on the Chinese bandit situation contains the following significant statement: "Up to the present time it is the Americans who have furnished all the supplies to all the foreigners." Every bit of food, bottled water, tents, and supplies of every sort that were sent to the bandits' prisoners came from American sources, although only a few of the prisoners were American citizens. The report brings a thrill of pride to all our people that the United States should be the first and only country in the world to send relief to the captives. Not only does the fact reveal the prompt response of the Federal government to all proper requests for aid from our citizens abroad, but it shows the willingness of the United States to help the nationals of other countries when their own governments are unable or unwilling to protect them.

From The Daily Republican
Monday, June 1, 1908

"We were just stealing a march on our friends and relatives," said Jim Hogsett today as he admitted with a smile playing on his countenance, that he was secretly married to Miss Zelah Norris last Wednesday night. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett, in West Second street, and Miss Norris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Norris, living in North Main Street. Last Wednesday night about nine o'clock, armed with a license, the couple appeared at the parsonage occupied by Rev. W. H. Clark, where they were united in the holy bands of matrimony.

Miss Edith Hiner of this city, who was defeated in the tour of Europe contest given by the Indianapolis Star, by the Columbus girl, who received the highest vote of any, and in fact twice as many as any girl, has been awarded a consolation prize, consisting of a pleasant trip with a congenial party to the Great Lakes.

A Rushville party was entertained in Cincinnati Sunday by Bob Ewing, the phenomenal pitcher of the Cincinnati League ball team. In the party were Dr. Will C. Smith, City Marshall, Price, T. W. Lytle, Charles A. Frazee and Harrie Jones.

Walter Thomas, who was called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. J. Q. Thomas, will start this afternoon on his return to Panama, where he is employed by the government, as a head clerk in the commissary department.

Connorsville Examiner: Miss Anna Marlatt and Miss Ford, teachers of Rushville, attended the commencement exercises here Thursday night and returned to Rushville Friday night.

Among those who witnessed "The Lion and The Mouse" at Connorsville Saturday night were Mrs. Panthea Smiley, Miss Alice Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gohring, Jinks Gohring, Howard Mahin, Misses Susie Horr, Notie Moran, Mary Cauley, Margaret Yunker, Frank Lyons, Gus William, Mull Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Feudner.

Ben Sparks has accepted a position as chauffeur with the Long and Case Auto company.

Paul D. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Greep of East Fifth street, who has been located at Palo Alto, California, for several years, has removed to Glen Apline, Springs, California, for the summer, where he will conduct and personally manage a large summer resort.

Ask Your Neighbor

There is hardly a neighborhood in the United States where women cannot be found who have derived benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For nearly fifty years this botanic medicine has been overcoming some of the worst forms of female ills. As one woman has been benefited by its use she has told others who have used it with the same good results; so the use of this great medicine has spread from shore to shore, by the recommendation of those who have found it good. Therefore, ask your neighbor; let her tell you from experience the benefit which ailing women derive from its use.

Illinois and Michigan Favorites in Conference Event

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 1—The annual western conference field and track meet here this afternoon and tomorrow, will be more than a battle between two schools for first honors.

Illinois and Michigan, considered favorites, will be hard pushed by powerful teams from at least four other big ten schools.

Preliminaries in the events start at 3 p. m. with finals tomorrow.

Iowa, represented by the largest number of men, with a team of sixty, is credited with an especially strong track squad, and is expected to cop a large number of points, even though the school may lose first position.

School Board Has Permission To Buy Ground Near School

Kokomo, Ind., June 1—A new high school gymnasium is in prospect for this city.

Permission has been given the school board to purchase ground adjoining the high school for the purpose.

Not only will the building contain a gymnasium where the ardent youngsters bent on capturing the state championship may practice and which will seat no less than 3,500 people, but the building will also be used as an auditorium in which plays, graduation exercises and convocations may be held.

Ten business men who have asked that their names be withheld have promised the High School Athletic association financial assistance in the guarantee that the initial cost of the building will be met.

The money these men will advance, it was understood will be in the form of a non-interest loan, which the association will pay off with proceeds of school plays and basketball games.

The Score Board

Tris Speaker's homer with one in the sixth inning scored the runs that gave the Cleveland Indians a 5-4 victory over the White Sox.

Five hits off Meadows in the fourth inning gave the Cards three runs and a 4-1 victory over the Pirates.

A pass in the seventh inning, a triple by Burns and a single by Duncan scored two runs and enabled the Reds to beat the Cubs 3-2.

Severid got two doubles and three singles in five times up and helped the Browns beat the Tigers 8 to 3.

MADE DEFENDANT IN TWO LAW SUITS

$200,000, and that he owned a large amount of real estate and made large sums of money on land deals. Mrs. Williams in her complaint also charges that by pursuing fraudulent means, that the banking president succeeded in borrowing from patrons to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars, all of which was deposited in and distributed through the defendant bank.

The complaint charges that the defendant, Earl Payne, during the year 1922 and up to the present time has been indebted to the customers and depositors to the extent of $175,000 to $200,000 and that for many years prior, instead of being worth the amount alleged to have been represented by him, that he was in fact insolvent and unable to pay his debts or repay his borrowings.

The plaintiff also charges that the defendant, Ralph Payne, was familiar with the fact that the defendant Earl Payne, was insolvent.

The plaintiff alleges that she was solicited by Earl Payne on May 17, 1922 and loaned $8,500 at seven per cent interest, which was one percent more than she was receiving on securities which she converted into cash to make the loan. The complaint then goes into detail concerning a transaction that is alleged to have taken place later in which the securities were sold and the money transferred to the defendant, Earl H. Payne.

She alleges misrepresentation by the bank, and its officials, and demands judgment for $8,500. A second paragraph of the complaint also sets out additional facts which are alleged to have taken place in which the plaintiff accuses the two officers of the bank, who are defendants, with fraudulent intentions.

In the second complaint of Theodore Richardson Reed against Earl H. Payne and Charles A. Manzy, a suit to enforce a lien, it is alleged that on August 26, 1920, Theodore H. Reed sold to Earl H. Payne 332.05 acres of land for $35,000, and that it was conveyed by warranty to Jasper D. Case, who is alleged to have been acting as trustee for the defendant, Payne.

There was no part of the purchase price paid, according to the complaint, and promissory notes were given. In February, 1923, Theodore H. Reed expired, but before that time he had assigned to his son, the plaintiff in this case, his interests and notes.

On March 29, 1922, the complaint alleges that the plaintiff and the defendants had an agreement in which Charles A. Manzy had the land conveyed to him, instead of Mr. Case, who also is said to have acted for the defendant Payne.

On August 24, 1922, the complaint alleges that the defendant Payne executed and delivered his note for $10,000 to the plaintiff as a part of the payment of the land, and took up other outstanding notes alleged to have been given. The note is not due until August of this year, and the complaint alleges that the defendant is "wholly insolvent and has not sufficient funds and assets with and out of which to discharge all of liabilities."

Because of these allegations, the complaint seeks to have a lien established, and an order issued to prevent the defendants from conveying the land in order to defraud him when the note becomes due.

Pete Morrison, the popular young star who will appear in "Duty First" the big Sanford production directed by Marcel Perez, at the Mystic theatre Saturday, has a horse that knows and loves Pete like a brother. Remington as the horse is called, hates to have any one else on his back and you cannot fool him easily. Jusseppo Vargolla found this out to his discomfort when he stole Pete's horse in "Duty First."

No sooner had he mounted than Remington manifested his indignation at the intrusion. He began to carry on like the wildest kind of broncho and it was only after Pete himself had talked to the horse—"man to horse" style, they called it on the ranch—that Remington agreed to be good. But, as soon as the scene had been shot, Remington agreed to be good. But, as soon as the scene had been shot, Remington vigorously repelled any further advances on the part of Jusseppo Vargolla to gain his good

Every spoonful of Kellogg's Bran helps free you from toxic poisons!

Constipation is largely responsible for auto-intoxication that leads to dangerous diseases unless it is not only checked but permanently relieved. Constipation, in fact, is the basis of a majority of human ailments which could be headed off if people would only help rid themselves of this serious, health-undermining condition, which can be easily done.

Constipation must be fought to a finish—not with pills and cathartics, which are dangerous to the delicate membranes of the intestines and temporary at best—but with nature's greatest cereal health food—Bran—Kellogg's Bran, which is as delicious as it is beneficial.

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its work because it is ALL BRAN. And, to get permanent relief, ALL BRAN is a necessity, for it is the "bulk" of Kellogg's Bran that sweeps and purifies, ridding the system of poisons and bringing conditions to normal. Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases—and we guarantee that you will get relief permanently and naturally.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious. You do not have to learn to like it. Eat it as a cereal or sprinkle on or mix with hot or cold cereals. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's makes wonderful muffins, griddle cakes, raisin bread, macaroons, etc. Recipes on package.

Leading hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

Man Has Miraculous Escape

"I was told by our family physician that I could not live without an operation, as my liver and gall sack were in such a condition. I set the day to go to the hospital, but then I saw the advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it I am feeling like a two-year-old. I am sure I never could have survived an operation." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.
